The UN Joint Programme on ‘Protecting Migrant Children from Trafficking and Exploitation’ is to mitigate the vulnerability and increase the protection of children at high risk of trafficking and exploitation due to migration. This programme is expected to upgrade Zambian laws pertaining to vulnerable children and persons of concern and establish mechanisms for their enforcement; contribute to institutional development and capacity building of service providers; strengthen the judiciary to identify, prevent, protect and respond to cases of unaccompanied minors, child victims of trafficking and asylum-seekers.

Goal of JP
Mitigate the vulnerability and increase the protection of children at high risk of trafficking and exploitation due to migration.

Expected outcomes
1. Upgraded Zambian laws pertaining to vulnerable children and persons of concern with established mechanisms for their enforcement.
2. Judiciary and services providers strengthened to identify, prevent, protect and respond to cases of unaccompanied minors, child victims of trafficking and asylum-seekers which result from migration.
